

Construction Notice No. 6 August 2010

Advanced Watermain, Utility and Road Works for Finch West Subway Station

Construction begins this month for an extension of Tangiers Road and Murray Ross Parkway in preparation of the Finch West Subway Station construction. Once complete, the extension will provide a detour route for the intersection of Keele Street and Finch Ave West to help ease traffic during station construction.

Murray Ross Parkway will be extended east to meet a northern extension of Tangiers Road. The new road work also includes replacement and installation of water mains, utilities, drainage, traffic signals as well as new landscaping and pedestrian sidewalks. The extension road, utility re-location and enabling works are part of the Toronto-York Spadina Subway Extension (TYSSE) project.

This advanced work also includes the relocation of the watermains and utilities on Keele St., from Finch Ave West to north of Murray Ross Parkway and the relocation of utilities on Murray Ross Parkway through Keele St. The utility relocation has been co-ordinated alongside the TYSSE construction to ease the impact to the community. This work is expected to be complete March 2011*.

* Expected completion date is subject to change due to weather and/or unforeseen events.
